'The gentleman," he said, "called Nevada a rotten borough, but he defied the entleman to name any instance of the purchase of the Legislature of that State. He defied the gentleman to name a time in her history when there had not been an honest vote, honestly counted. Nevada nonest vote, nonestly counted. Nevada never had to boast of a Connelly, a Sweeny, a Cordoza, a Field nor an Ingersoll, and it was to her credit that she had never produced a Cox. Unlike the State of New York, the capacity of her ballot-boxes was limited by the number of votes cast, and if the Blair bill became a law his constituents will not get cents where the gentleman's constituents will get dollars. STATE CONSTABULARY AGAIN.

A correspondent suggests that somewhere in the State local officers may have the third man suspected of the murder of John Lowell in El Dorado county recently, in confinement, or under surveillance, awaiting the offer of a reward. Nothing is known to us to justify the suspicion, and we do not therefore give it any credit. But this we do know, that scores of times in the history of the State that method to do the pocket a kindly turn has been adopted by peace officers. It is too notorious a fact to be questioned by any one. The value of its statement now is in the side light it throws upon the interesting debate concerning a State constabulary. It must be clear to any intelligence that so long as there is no one authority specially commissioned to pursue criminals within the State, and without, if need be, their ment at Jackson, Miss., was in every way a urement and size of hat. By order to ridion. capture must be dependent upon the activity or laziness, the capacity or incapacity of about six hundred peace officers adherents of the lost cause, for whose folly vancement. If now we had a half dozen State Constables located at widely separated points in the State, and under direction of a Chief at the capital, the moment the revelation was made that a great crime was committed and that the criminal had escaped, the State Constables would be fully informed of the facts, and each in his district would be at work so placing the towns in the State. While it has not been agencies of capture that escape of the carried aloft on the wave of any wild, criminal from the State would be almost impossible. It will be a clean campaign if the self-respecting journals of the land so decree it. With them the whole matter rests-as for the scurrilous sheets, they can be left to the mercies of a discriminating public. Let campaign times, will be public speakings. Although not quite completed, the park was opened on Sunday, and while the only the publishers of the daily papers that attraction was a baseball game between amateur local clubs, the whole town turned claim to be exponents of public thought and run fair, open-handed, square-dealing newspapers resolve that their columns shall not be made sewer-pipes for the carriage of "they says," "rumors" and other scandalous matters that Satanic malignity conjures up in these periodical political revolutions, to gratify the vulgar taste and to poison the general mind against candidates. It is not so much men in these contests as it is what is behind and underlying them; their frailties are not in issue, nor yet their surpassing virtues, but the principles for which they stand, the following they command, the thought they represent. The campaign personal assaults against lives that have for long years commanded respect and have gone unscathed through much public service, may, in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred, be set down as malicious fabrications, and the weaponry of cowardice and malignity. If against all such the decent press peremptorily closes its columns, there will be found no avenues for their transmission that will command any considerable public hearing. It comes to this, then, that if we do not have a clean campaign in 1888, free from scurrility and assaults upon character, the press will be chargable with the

What will the passage of the ordinance effect unless enforced? What probability is there that it will be made effective. when your officers cannot, or will not, enforce the State law prohibiting dealing in and advertising lottery tickets? In this city the dealer enjoys immunity from arrest, and therefore to punish the purchaser would be farcical and the hight of injustice. To erect a new statute to reach the buyer of a lottery ticket, while the State law explicitly peints out the seller as the offender against the State's statute, would be a straining after effect unworthy of any municipal legislature. What a farce it would be, to be sure, to clap the holder of a lottery ticket into prison by virtue of a municipal ordinance, while the man who induced him to buy keeps open shop, without fear of interruption by the law of the State. A SAN FRANCISCO journal is doing some effective good work by exposing the mediumistic and fortune-telling frauds who infest the metropolis. These exposes may WEDNESDAY, June 13, 1888, to the District Attorney. Street Commissioner Ryan was authorized to buy some "rough on gophers" and interview those little rodents on the north levee. The levee fund is not very large, there remaining but $26 01 to its credit. Complaint was made of a saloon on Twelfth street, north of the levee. From pulmonary affections, and also developing the complaint on file it would appear to be a tendency to dysentery and catarrhal nearly if not quite as tough as a good many dives on lower K street. The matter was referred to the Chief of Police. If the license is taken away from the keeper of this den of iniquity then it should also be taken from at least three notorious dives on K street, where lewd women and drunken men laden the night air with

New Fruit Company.

The "Growers' and Shippers' Association" was formed in this city yesterday. Its objects are the buying and shipping of green fruits for the purpose of developing the Eastern markets for California green fruit. The chief place of business will be Sacramento. The association is composed of the Earle Fruit Company, Sacramento; Wood & Co., Sacramento; C. W. Reed, Sacramento; George D. Kellogg, Newcastle. The association is organized upon a mutual contract, for the purpose of shipping train-loads of fruit when fruit is abundant, so as to get transportation to market on the most favorable terms. C. W. Reed is to be the Eastern agent, and will dispose of the association's fruits on Eastern headquarters will probably be Chicago, and Boston and New York will be general points for operation. The asso-ciation proposes to carry fruit for growers who do not sell to the company, so as to afford them train-load advantages. Reed was the first person to take California fruit to an Eastern market, and has bee largely engaged in fruit-shipping for many years on his own account. He has a large fruit auction business in the East, and put t into the new association. The members of the organization say that they are in or position to no other company, but consider their effort an aid to the enlargement of the market and consumption of Californi fruits at the East, and that there is room for them, and will be for others as the bus ness more and more develops.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE RECORD-UNION.]

A RELAPSE. The Case of Emperor Frederick Again

Becomes Critical.

opyright, 1888, by the California Associated Press. LONDON, June 11th .- The fears that an- not been captured. other crisis was approaching in the condi-tion of Emperor Frederick have proved true. An opening has been discovered from the trachea to the esophagus, in con-sequence of which the Emperor's life is endangered when taking solid food. Liquid from his borse at the Jerome food can only be administered safely by the exercise of great discretion. The cavity was caused by recent coughing and the ejecting of particles of tissue. The danger onsists in the liability of solid food passing through this opening into the trachea and, by obstructing the air passages, cause suffocation. The Crown Prince and Dr. Hovell, who went to Lendon last week, were herriedly recalled. Both arrived at

Against the London "Times." LONDON, June 11th .- While the London imes is summoning a host of witnesses from all classes and quarters of England and Ireland to support the slanderous indictment of crime against Parnell and the Irish landlords, Frank Hugh O'Donnell, in his action for libel against the paper, in order to make it prove its statements, has subpensed some of the most eminent men in England, among them Spencer, formerly Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland, and Sir George Otto Trevelyan, who was Chief Secretary for Ireland. There is a formidable array of legal talent on each side and the mass of written testimony is enormous.

LIMERICK'S BISHOP.

O'Dwyer Warns His Flock Against Disobeying the Pope. Dublin, June 11th .- Bishop O'Dwyer, of imerick, has written another letter in re lation to the Pope's rescript, in which he vehemently reiterates the statements in his letter to the Mayor of Limerick in regard letter to the Mayor of Limerick in regard to those who refused to abide by the terms of the rescript, and denounces all those of the rescript, and denounces all those who refuse to obey the Pope as desperate men. Bishop O'Dwyer hints that he will excommunicate the schismatical parishoners of his diocese who disobey the rescript. The slanders directed against himself, he says, are malicious lies concocted by leaders of the agitation in order to prejudice his spiritual authority. He says he has always been a Nationalist, but does not accept disobedience of the Pope as the test of fealty to the cause.

The Carnegie-Blaine Party.

London, June 11th .- Carnegie and his party have arrived at Grantham. So far their tour has been an enjoyable one. Blaine, before reaching Grantham, took incheon with the Earl of Rosslyn at the Burleigh House. At Grantham the party put up at the Angel, said to be the oldest inn in the United Kingdom. > Prof. H. A. Mott, U. S. Government Chemist, after examining officially the principal baking powders of the country, reported:

"The Royal Baking Powder is absolutely pure, for I have so found it in many tests made both for that company and the United States Government. "Because of the facilities that company have for obtaining perfectly pure cream of tartar, and for other reasons dependent upon the proper proportions of the same, and the method of its preparation, the Royal Baking Powder is undoubtedly the purest and most reliable baking powder offered to the public.

Owing to the inclination of many people to be humbugged in the purchase of articles of necessity in the household, we feel it our duty to sound a note of warning to those who seek remedies for the relief or the aches and pains incident to this season of the year. The great and growing popularity of BENSON'S PLASTER has tempted unscrupulous manufacturers to offer many worthless substitutions and imitations of that valuable remedy; hence we would advise those who wish to secure prompt relief from Coughs. Colds, Horrseness, Pleurisy, Chest Peins, Sciatica, Rheumatism, Lumbago and Backache, to carefully avoid worthless plasters by always asking for EENSON'S, and let no persuasion by the dealer induce you to accept any other plaster.
